Gapyeong Culture and Arts Center

Greetings from Gyeonggi-do!

Gyeonggi-do is the most populous province in South Korea. As the majority of the country's population is concentrated in Gyeonggi-do, there are a multitude of cultures here, which continue to grow dynamically by local people.

Even among the vast number of cultural sites in Gyeonggi-do, the “ggc guide” introduces performance venues and facilities for arts and culture in and around Gyeonggi-do at a glance.

The guide comprises a map of 31 cities and counties divided into 4 greater areas by each cardinal direction, providing basic information about performance facilities in each area.

Be sure to check out “ggc”(ggc.ggcf.kr), GyeongGi Cultural Foundation’s online content platform, for not only information about performance venues but also restaurants and travel information around performance venue areas, and also news about arts and culture in Gyeonggi-do.

We hope that you find this guide helpful in exploring Gyeonggi-do, as if you’re guided by a friend, to experience new and various arts and culture of Gyeonggi-do.

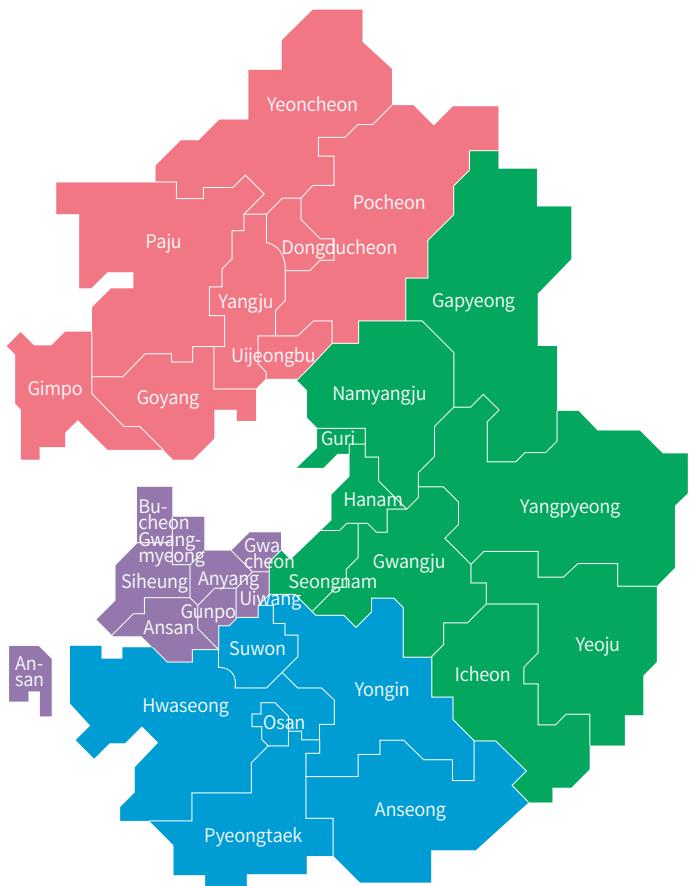

GyeongGi Cultural Foundation

The “ggc” is an all-new online content platform that the GyeongGi Cultural Foundation(GGCF) is pleased to introduce. “ggc” stands for ‘GyeongGi Culture’ and it provides a broad range of arts and cultural contents including exhibitions, performances, education, community, travel, people, history, works of art, space, and research categories.

Norumok Outdoor Theater : With about 1,000 seats for the performance stage along with a green space nearby Jeongbalsan Mountain, Norumok Outdoor Theater is a place where you can rest in nature enjoying a performance. Furthermore, as it completely blocks any noise from a city, you can enjoy the encounter between nature and art. Its outstanding sound quality along with silver birch trees near the stage is what Norumok Outdoor Theater takes pride in.
